Convocation at Carleton University

The Convocation ceremony (the calling together of the academic assembly) has its roots in university traditions of medieval Europe.

The Mace

The mace is a staff symbolizing authority. In the days of knighthood, it was a weapon, but after the 16th century it became solely a symbol of authority carried by a distinguished member of an assembly. It is used on ceremonial occasions to signify the right of an individual or institution to perform a certain function—in the case of universities, to grant degrees.

At Convocation, the mace is carried ahead of the Chancellor as he enters and leaves each ceremony. (Marshal of Convocation H.H.J. Nesbitt has performed this function for all but one of the University's Convocations.) During the ceremony the mace is displayed on a special stand as an embodiment of the authority of the University.

Carleton's mace was presented to the University in 1976 as a gift from the Chair of the Board of Governors at that time, Mr. Hyman Soloway. It is a silver-plated staff approximately three feet long. At the upper end there is a bowl marked with the University's coat of arms and the University motto in both Latin and English—"Opera Nobis Aeterna" and "Ours the Task Eternal." From the upper portion of the bowl rises a phoenix. Traditional oak leaves surround the lower end of the staff.

Coat of Arms

The coat of arms was presented to the University by His Excellency The Right Honourable Ramon John Hnatyshyn, Governor-General of Canada, on November 15, 1992 as part of Carleton's 50th anniversary celebrations. It is described in heraldic terms as follows: "Sable a maple leaf Gules irradiated and charged with an open book Argent; And for a Crest: on a wreath Argent Sable and Gules a Phoenix Gules quilled and beaked Or issuing from flames proper; And for a Motto: Ours the Task Eternal; And for Supporters: on a grassy mount on either side a raven Sable beaked and membered or armed Gules."

The open book on the maple leaf signifies that Carleton University is in the nation's capital and that learning is open to all who wish to partake of it. The phoenix, the legendary eternal bird, symbolizes the renewing of learning from older foundations, in recognition of Henry Marshall Tory's role in the founding of the University when he was 82 years old. "Ours the Task Eternal" is taken from a Walt Whitman poem entitled "Pioneers" and ties in with the eternal quality of the phoenix.

And so, the Carleton University coat of arms symbolizes sound learning, good citizenship, and the highest hopes of humanity.

The Diploma

The diploma the graduates receive at Convocation is the certificate of qualification which publishes the fact that the student has fulfilled all the requirements and completed the prescribed course of study for the degree. As the senior academic legislative body of the University, it is the Senate which has determined whether the requirements have been met. The signatures of both the Chancellor and the President of the University appear on the diploma: the Chancellor because of his role in conferring the degree, and the President who, as Chair of Senate, certifies that Senate has enacted the required motion to award the degree. The Seal of the University is affixed to the diploma as a mark of authentication.

Academic Dress

The academic dress of Carleton University results from a compromise between that found in the ancient foundations of Britain and Canada and the American Intercollegiate Code. All three hoods—bachelor's, master's, and doctor's—are of the simple or Oxford shape. The bachelor's hood is made of black stuff; the master's and doctor's are made of black silk and all are lined with silver silk with two chevrons, one of red and one of black. From bachelor's to doctor's, the hoods are progressively longer and opened to show more and more of the lining.

The velvet border of the hoods denotes the degrees granted according to the following colour combinations: architecture is cerise; arts is white; commerce is camel brown; computer science is royal blue; engineering is orange; industrial design is dark cardinal; journalism is white with a black cord sewn slightly in from the lower border; management studies is camel brown with a black cord sewn slightly in from the lower border; music is venetian pink; public administration is peacock blue; science is golden yellow; social work is cream; and doctor of philosophy is purple.

The bachelor's gown, to be worn with the above hoods, is of full length, made of black stuff, with a gathered yoke behind, and long open-fronted sleeves. The master's gown is of full style, made of black silk or rayon, with a full gathered yoke behind, and closed sleeves with an opening at the elbows. The doctoral gown is of the same style as the master's, but made of fine royal blue cloth with facings of light blue silk.

The two shades of blue in the doctoral gown are those of the United Nations, and are meant to recognize the University's long-standing interest, from its earliest years, in international affairs and issues. The colours were chosen when the University awarded its first honorary degree, in 1954, to the second Secretary General of the United Nations, the late Dag Hammarskjöld. The tradition of awarding honorary degrees to Secretaries General of the United Nations has continued since that time.

The gown of the honorary Doctor of Laws, Literature, Science, Engineering, Architecture or Fine Arts is a full robe with bell-shaped sleeves. It is made of fine royal blue cloth with facings and sleeves in light blue silk. The hood is made of the same material as the gown, has the same lining as that for the degrees granted by examination, and is bordered with dark mauve for the degree of Doctor of Laws; vibrant blue for the degree of Doctor of Literature; red for the degree of Doctor of Science; orange for the degree of Doctor of Engineering, cerise for the degree of Doctor of Architecture, and dark cardinal for the degree of Doctor of Fine Arts.

Alumni Park

Weather permitting, today's Convocation ceremonies are being held outdoors in Alumni Park which was dedicated in 1992, at the initiative of the Carleton University Alumni Association, to commemorate the University's 50th anniversary. The arbour under which the Chancellor, the President and Vice-Chancellor, the representative of the Board of Governors and the faculty are seated is a generous gift from the Association. It provides a permanent stage for Carleton's Convocation ceremonies and other events such as theatrical productions, concerts, and the like. Future plans for the Park include an enhancement of the existing fountain area with the construction of a plaza and landscaping to open up views to the Rideau River.

The Presiding Officer of Convocation is the Chancellor of the University, Arthur Kroeger, O.C., M.A., LL.D.

Accompanying him on the podium are Italo Tiezzi, B.A., representing the Board of Governors, and Robin H. Farquhar, M.A., Ph.D., F.C.C.E.A., President and

Honorary Degree Recipient

Nellie J. Cournoyea, LL.D.

Nellie J. Cournoyea, former Government Leader of the Northwest Territories, will be awarded the degree of Doctor of Laws, honoris causa, at the morning ceremony on Thursday, June 13, "in recognition of a distinguished contribution as a social activist and political leader to Canada's North through pioneering work on behalf of its indigenous peoples, particularly the Inuit, and as a role model for all women."

Born in Aklavik in the western Arctic in 1940 to a Norwegian-born trapper and an Inuvialuit woman, Nellie Cournoyea was educated through the Federal Aklavik Day School by Alberta correspondence courses. Ms Cournoyea worked for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation in Inuvik, first as a radio announcer and later as regional manager, while raising two children. She has also worked as a land claim field worker for the Inuit Tapirisat of Canada. She was a founding member, and later administrator and land rights worker, of the Committee for Original Peoples' Entitlement.

Ms Cournoyea was the first Managing Director of the Inuvialuit Development Corporation after she acted as chief negotiator during land claims negotiations with the federal government. She also held the position of implementation coordinator for the Inuvialuit Final Agreement for several years, and served on the Board of Directors of the Inuvialuit Petroleum Corporation, the Inuvialuit Development Corporation, the Enrolment Authority and Arbitration Board.

Nellie Cournoyea ran for office and was elected in 1979 and served the people of the Northwest Territories for 16 years, holding many cabinet posts in the territorial government including Minister of Renewable Resources and Minister of Culture and Communications from 1983 to 1985, Minister of Health and Social Services, Minister of Energy, Mines and Petroleum Resources, and Minister Responsible for the Public Utilities Board in 1987, and Minister of Public Works and Highways in 1988. She was also Minister Responsible for the Workers' Compensation Board from 1988 to 1989 and Minister Responsible for the Northwest Territories Power Corporation in 1989. Nellie Cournoyea served as Government Leader of the Northwest Territories from 1991 to 1995 and was the first aboriginal woman in Canada to lead a provincial or territorial government.

In January, 1996, Nellie Cournoyea was elected Chair and Chief Executive Officer of the Inuvialuit Regional Corporation (IRC). The Corporation was established in 1985 with the mandate to receive the Inuvialuit lands and financial compensation resulting from the 1984 land claim settlement. Today IRC has assets in excess of $267 million.

In a volunteer capacity, Ms Cournoyea served as a Director of the Ingamo Hall Friendship Centre in Inuvik and a founding member of the Northern Games Association. Continuing volunteer commitments include work in Inuvialuit historical and cultural activities. She received the Northwest Territories Native Women's Association of the Year Award (Politics) in 1982 and, in 1986, was the first recipient of the Wallace Goose Award given by the Inuvialuit Regional Corporation in recognition of contributions to the culture and lifestyles of the Inuvialuit. In 1994, Nellie Cournoyea was the recipient of the National Aboriginal Achievement Award.

Nellie Cournoyea received an honorary Doctor of Laws degree from Lakehead University in 1995.

O Canada

O Canada! Our home and native land!
True patriot love in all thy sons command.
With glowing hearts we see thee rise,
The True North strong and free!
From far and wide, O Canada,
We stand on guard for thee.
God keep our land glorious and free!
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

Honorary Degree Recipient

James W. Borcoman, B.A., M.F.A.

James W. Borcoman, Curator Emeritus of Photography, National Gallery of Canada, will be awarded the degree of Doctor of Fine Arts, honoris causa, at the afternoon ceremony on Thursday, June 13, "in recognition of a distinguished contribution to the world of international scholarship, as founder and longtime curator of the photographs collection of the National Gallery of Canada, and a career which has exemplified unusual gifts of vision, inspiration, and connoisseurship."

James Borcoman graduated from the University of New Brunswick with a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1955. In 1975, he received a Master of Fine Arts degree from the State University of New York (Buffalo).

During a distinguished career covering 34 years at the National Gallery of Canada, James Borcoman was Education Officer, Director of Exhibitions and Education, Head of Publications, Chair of the Prints, Drawings, and Photographs Collections, and Senior Curator of Photographs. In 1967 he established the Photographs Collection at the National Gallery, the first of its kind in a Canadian art museum, and he has been a pioneer in promoting photography as an art form in Canada. Over a period of 28 years, he has been responsible for the growth of the collection to 19,000 photographs and related objects, for the care of and research into the collection, and for the organization and co-ordination of some 46 exhibitions. As a result, the Photographs Collection has achieved a world-wide reputation both for the quality of its 19th and 20th century holdings and for the excellence of its exhibitions and publications.

Mr. Borcoman is the author of numerous articles and monographs including: Magicians of Light; Karsh: The Art of the Portrait; Eugène Atget, 1857-1927; Goodridge Roberts: A Retrospective Exhibition; and the award-winning Charles Nègre, 1820-1880, for which he received, in 1977, the Distinguished Achievement Award from the Photographic Historical Society of New York and a Bronze Medal from the Leipzig International Book Fair. In 1963 James Borcoman published an article in Canadian Art on Gerald Trottier's mosaic mural in Carleton University's Tory Building.

Mr. Borcoman has also lectured widely throughout Canada, the United States, and France. He has been an adjunct lecturer at the University of Ottawa and he is the holder of an honorary adjunct lectureship at the University of Arizona, Tempe.

Upon his retirement from the National Gallery in 1994, James Borcoman became Curator Emeritus at that institution and a consultant and lecturer in the history of photography.

Thursday,
June 13, 2:00 p.m.

O Canada

O Canada! Our home and native land!
True patriot love in all thy sons command.
With glowing hearts we see thee rise,
The True North strong and free!
From far and wide, O Canada,
We stand on guard for thee.
God keep our land glorious and free!
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.
